“A time to love and a time to hate, a time for war, and a time for peace... Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.”

— KING SOLOMON, ≈ 970–931 BC

“Be pitiful, for every man is fighting a hard battle.”

— IAN MACLAREN, 1897, THE BRITISH WEEKLY

“If you know the enemy and know yourself, you need not fear the result of a hundred battles. If you know yourself but not the enemy, for every victory gained you will also suffer a defeat. If you know neither the enemy nor yourself, you will succumb in every battle.”

— SUN TZU, THE ART OF WAR, ≈ 544–496 BC
